ASTRAY BUT RECOVERED.

DR. TALMAGE PREACHES ON THE NÉ-CESSITY OF A REDEEMER. Beauty, Pathos and Comfort Found in the Fifty-third Chapter of Isaiah--- How and Why Men and Sheep Go Astray. Whospever Will, Let Him Come. BROOKLYN, June 28 .- Dr. Talmage's sermon to-day is of so decidedly evan-gelical a character as to prove concluselical a character as to prove conclusively that while so many eminent proachers of the day are drifting away from the old tashioued Gospel he remains firm in the paths of orthodoxy. His subject is "Astray, but Recovered," and his text, Isaiah lii, 6: "All we like sheep have gone astray: " " and the Lord hath laid on him the iniq y of within ninety years at the longest all who hear or read this sermon will be in eternity. During the next fifty years you will nearly all be gone. The next ten years will cut a wide swath among the people. The year 1801 will to some be the finality. Such considerations make this occasion absorbing and momentous. The first half of my text is mentous. The first half of my text is an indictment, "All we like sheep have gone astray." Some one says: "Can you not drop the first word? That is too general; that sweeps too great a circle," Some man rises in the audience and he looks over on the opposite side of the house, and he says: "There is a blasphemer, and I understand how he has gone astray. And there in another part of the house is a defrauder, and he has gone astray. And there is an impure person, and he has gone astray."

Sit down, my brother, and look at home. My text takes us all in. It starts behind the pulpit, sweeps the circuit of the room and comes back to the point where it started, when it says: "All we like sheep have gone astray." I can very easily understand why Martin Luther threw up his hands after he had found the Bible and cried out, "Oh! my sine, my sine," and why the publican, according to the custom to this day in the east when they have any great grief, began to beat himself and cry as the smoote upon his breast "God he mer." e smote upon his breast, "God be merciful to me a sinner." ILLUSTRATION FROM THE SHEPHERD'S

I was like many of you, brought up in the country, and I know some of the habits of sheep and how they get astray, and what my text means when it says, " liwe like sheep have gone astray." Sheep get astray in two ways, either by trying to get into other pasture, or from being scared by the dogs. In the former way some of us got astray. We thought the religion of Jesus Christ short com-mons. We thought there was better pasturage somewhere else. We thought f we could only he down on the banks of distant streams or under great oaks on the other side of some hill we might

We wanted other pasturage than that which God through Jesus Christ gave our soul, and we wandered on and we wandered on, and we were lost. We wanted bread and we found garbage. The further we wandered, instead of finding rich pasturage, we found blasted health and sharper rocks and more stinging nettles. No pasture. How was i in the worldly groups when you lost here are the means with which I mean your child? Did they come around and to settle that obligation; now give me a give you more comfort than all worldly associations? Dig all the convivial songs you ever heard comfort you in that day of bereavement so much as the song they sang to you, perhaps the very song that was sung by your little child the last Sabbath afternoon of her life?

There is a happy land, far, far away, Where saints immortal reign, bright, bright as day.

Did your business associates in that day of darkness and trouble give you any especial condolence? Business ex-asperated you, business wore you out, business left you limp as a rag, business made you mad. You got dollars, but you got no peace. God have mercy on the man who has nothing but business to comfort him, The world afforded you no luxuriant pastirage. A famous English actor stood on the stage impersonating, and thunders of applause came down from the galleries, and many thought it was the proudest moment of all his life; but there was a man asleep just in front of him, and the fact that that man was indifferent and somnolent spoiled all the occasion for him, and he cried, "Wake all the lacerations of these days and up! wake up!"

So one little annoyance in life has been more pervading to your mind than all the brilliant congratulations and suc-cesses, poor pasturage for your soul you them on my heart." "On him the Lord found in this world. The world has cheated you, the world has belied you, the world has misinterpreted you, the and immortal.

You say, "It is only a man." It is only of a conscience which proposes to give a man gone overboard in business life. no rest here and no rest hereafter; and three worlds, with his hands taking hold of destinies of light or darkness. A that just the position they occupy is the of destinies of light or darkness. A man! No line can measure him. No limit can bound him. The archangel and thousands of men who never found before the throne cannot outlive him. The stars shall die, but he will watch burn, but Le will gaze on the conflagration. Endless ages will march on; he will watch the procession. A man! The masterplete of God Almightv. Yet you say, "It is only a man." Can a nature like that be fed on husks of the wilderness?

Substantial comfort will not grow On nature's harren soil;
All we can boast till Christ we know
Is vanity and toil.

THOSE WHO STRAY IN TROUBLE. Those who stray by looking for better pasturage; others by being scared of the dogs. The hound gets over into this pasture field. The poor things fly in every direction. In a few moments they are plashed of the ditch, and the less sheep never gets home unless the farmer goes after it. There is nothing for the following the financial states in the fall af 1873, when you got astray. You almost became an atheist. You said. "Where is God, that honest men go down and thieves prosper?" You almost became an atheist. You said. "Where is God, that honest men go down and thieves prosper?" You said. "Where is God, that honest men go down and thieves prosper?" You were dogged of treditors, you were dogged of the banks, you were dogged of the said. "I destroyed my home; my children into misanthropy, some of you took to strong drink, and others of you fied cut of Christian association, and you got the said af 18 the terrors of a drunkard's wos."

'You are a sinner;' the Holy Spirit persuaded the while I had estable while I had estable the sins against the law of the land I had really committed the worst into the street, while said and I had really committed the worst into the street of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands we re ted with the blood of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands we reted with the blood of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands we reted with the blood of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands we reted with the blood of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands we reted with the blood of the Son of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands we reted with the blood of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands we reted with the blood of the Son of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands we reted with the blood of the Son of God from my heart's affections. And I saw that my hands the "fer from Some of you got astray by looking for better pasturage; others by being scared of the dogs. The hound gets over into this pasture field. The poor things astray. O man! that was the last time when you ought to have forsaken God. Standing amid the foundering of your earthly tortunes, how could you get along without a God to comfort you, and a God to deliver you, and a God to help you, and a God to save you? You tell me you have been through, enough business trouble almost to kill you. I know it. I cannot understand how the boat could live one hour in that chopped sea. But I do not know by what process you got astray; some in one way, and some in another, and if you could really see he position some of you occupy before God this morning, your soul would burst into an agony of tears and you would pelt the heavens with the cry, "God have mercy!" Sinai's batteries have been unlimbered above your soul, and at times you have beard it thunder: "The wages of sin is death." "All have sinned and co ue short of the glory of God." By one man sin entered into the world and death by sin; and so death passed up on all men, for that all have sinned."

"The soul that sinneth it shall die."

When Sebastopol was being bombarded, two Russian frigates burned all night In the harbor throwing a glare upon the trembling fortress, and some of you are standing in the night of your soul's trouole. The cannonade and the conflagration, the multiplication of your sorrows and troubles I think must make the wings of God's hovering angels shiver to the tip.

But the last part of my text opens loor wide enough to let us all out and to let all heaven in. Sound it on the organ with all the stops out. Thrum it on the harps with all the strings atune. With all the melody possible let the heavens sound it to the earth and let the earth tell it to the heavens. "The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." I am glad that the prophet did not stop to explain whom he meant by "him." Him of the manger, him of the bloody sweat, him of the resurrection throne, him of the crucifixion agony, 'On him the Lord hath laid the iniquity of us all.

CHRIST COMES TO THE FALLEN. "Oh," says some man, "that is not generous, that is not fair; let every man carry his own burden and pay his own debts." That sounds reasonable. If I have an obligation and I have the means to meet it, and I come to you and ask you to settle that obligation, you rightly say, "Pay your own debts." If you and I walking down the street, both hale, hearty and well, I ask you to caranything mean in your doing that? Would there be anything bemeaning in my accepting that kindness? Oh, no. You would be mean not to do it. That what Christ does.

If we could pay our debts then it would e better to go up and pay them, saying, "Here, Lord, here is my obligation; your child? Did they come around and to settle that obligation; now give me a console you very much? Did not the plain Christian man who came into your paid. But the fact is we have fallen in thouse and sat up with your darling child the battle, we have gone down under the land of the result of the plain console you very much? Did not the paid. But the fact is we have fallen in the were all around so kind the battle, we have gone down under the land of the result of the paid. But the battle, we have gone down under the land of the result of land of the result of land of the result of land of the land of the result of land of the result of land of the land of on that Christmas night was only the bell, the resounding bell, of the ambu-lance. Clear the way for the Son of God. He comes down to bind up the wounds, and to scatter the darkness, and save the lost. Clear the way for the Son of God. Christ comes down to see us, and we re a dead lift. He does not lift us with the tips of his fingers. He does not lift us with one arm. He comes down upon his knee, and then with a dead lift he raises us to honor and glory and immortality. "The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Why, then, will no man carry his sins? You cannot carry successfully the smallest sin you ever committed. You might as well put the Apennines on one shoulder and the Alps on the other. How much less can you carry all the sins of your lifetime! Christ comes and looks down in your face and says: "I have come through through all the tempests of these nights. have come to bear your burdens, and to pardon your sins, and to pay your hath laid the iniquity of us all. NO REST FOR THE WICKED. Sin has almost pestered the life out of world has persecuted you. It never comforted you. Oh! this world is a good rack from which a horse may pick his hay; it is a good trough from which the swine may crunch their mess; but it world says and the peace of your nights. There are men who have been riddled of sin. The gives but little food to a soul blood bought world gives them no solace. Gossamer and volatile the world, while eternity, What is a soul? It is a hope high as as they look forward to it, is black as the throne of God. What is a man? midnight. They writhe under the stings What is a man? The battle ground of yet they do not repent, they do not pray, position occupied by scores, hundreds

It this meeting should be thrown open and the peopl: who are here could give their testimony, what thrilling experiences we should hear on all sides! There is a man in the gallery who would say: "I had brilliant surroundings. I had the best education that one of the best collegiate institutions of this country could give, and I observed all the moralities of life, and I was self righteous, and I thought I was all right before God as I am all right before men; but the Holy Spirit came to me one day and said, "You are a sinner;" the Holy Spirit persuaded me of the fact. While I had escaped the sins against the law of the It this meeting should be thrown open ther extinguishment. The world will and the peopl; who are here could give

I went on further and further from God until one day I got a letler saying:

"My Dear Husband—I have tried every way, done everything, and prayed earnestly and fervently for your reformation, but it seems of no avail. Since our little Henry died, with the exception of those few happy weeks when you our little Henry died, with the exception of those few happy weeks when you remained sober, my life has been one of sorrow. Many of the nights I have sat by the window, with my face bathed in tears, watching for your coming. I am broken hearted, I am sick. Mother and father have been here frequently and begged me to come home, but my love for you and my hope for brighter days have always made me refuse them. That hope seems now beyond realization, and I battled long before doing it. May God bless and preserve you, and take from you that accursed appetite and hasten you that accursed appetite and hasten the day when we shall be again living happily together. This will be my daily prayer, knowing that he has said, 'Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.' From your loving wife, MARY.

"And so I wandered on and wandered on," says that man, "until one night I passed a Methodist meeting house, and I said to myself, 'I'll go in and see what they are doing,' and I got to the door, and they were singing:

All may come, whoever will, This man receives poor sinners still.

"And I dropped right there where I was and I said, God have mercy,' and he had mercy on me. My home is restored, my wife sings all day long during work, my children come out a long way to greet me home, and my household is a little heaven. I will tell you what did all this for me. It was the truth that this day you proclaim, 'On him the Lord had laid the iniquity of us all.'" THE DRUNKARD AND THE OUTCAST.

Yonder is a woman who would say wandered off from my father's house; I heard the storm that pelts on a lost soul; my feet were blistered on the hot soul; my feet were blistered on the hot rocks. I went on-and on, thinking of all classes of voters. In his tour of all classes of voters. In his tour over the State Col. Terrell's advocacy of one night Jesus met me and he said: the measure was in public, and I can not suppose that it is intended to restrict my reply to Alliance members for you. Go home, poor thing! And, only, and to a few at that. Besides, it sir, I was too week to pray, and I was is too hot to speak in any house this time of year; and there is no place in sir, I was too week to pray, and I was too weak to repent, but I just cried out; I sobbed out my sins and my sorrows on the shoulders of him of whom it is said, 'the Lord hath' in-the in-

There is a young man . "I had a Christian bringin, "I had a Christian bringing from the country to city I had a good posity on your own feet!" But suppose you and I were in a regiment and I was wounded in the battle and I fell unconscious at your feet with gunshot fractures and dislocations, what would you do? They dragg the substitution of the sewers of iniquity, the sex in T., "Come and help, this man is help less; bring the ambulance, let us take him to the hospital," and I would be a dead lift in your arms, and you would lift me from the ground where I had a good posity on the steer I met some young did me no good. They dragg the sex in T., "Come and help, this man is help less; bring the ambulance, let us take him to the hospital," and I would be a dead lift in your arms, and you would lift me from the ground where I had fallen and put me in the ambulance and take me to the hospital and heve. lift me from the ground where I had fallen and put me in the ambulance and take me to the hospital and have all he was in earnest and I said, 'What do kindness shown me. Would there be you mean, sir?' 'Well,' he replied, 'I mean if you will come to the meeting to-night I will be very glad to introduce you. I will meet you at the door. Will you come?' Said I, 'I will.'

"I went to the place where I was tarrying. I fixed myself up as well as I could. I buttoned my coat over a ragged yest and went to the door of the church, and the young man met me church, and the young man met me and we went in; and as I went in I that what you say is true; I believe it in my own experience. 'On him the tord hath laid the iniquity of us all.'
Oh, my brother, without stopping to look as to whether your hand trembles or not, without stopping to look whether some hand, let me give you one warm, brotherly. Christian grip, and invite you right up to the heart, to the compassion. to the sympathy, to the pardon of him or whoch the Lord had laid the mightly of us all. Throw away your sins. Carry them no longer.
I proclaim emancipation this morning and I stand aside. He comes up these steps. He comes to this place. I must stand aside. Taking that place he sprease abroach is heard, and they were nailed. You see his feet, they were bruised. He phils aside the robe and shows you his wounded heart. I say, "Whence comest thou?" He says, "I come from Calvary." I say, "Whence comest thou?" He says, "I say, "Why comest thou here?" "Oh," he says, "I came here to carry all the says and he says, "Put on my shoulders all the sorrows and all the sins." And consolous of my own sins

And he kneels and he says, "Put on my shoulders all the sorrows and all the sins." And conscious of my own sins first, I take them and put them on the shoulders of the Son of God. I say, "Canst thou bear any more, O Christ?" He says, "Yen, more." And I gather up the sins of all those whe serve at these altars, the officers of the Church of Jesus Christ—I gather up all their sins and put them on Christ's shoulders, and I say, "Canst thou bear any more?" He says, "Yea, more." Then I gather up all the sins of a hundred people in this house, and I put them on the shoulders of Christ, and 1 say, "Canst thou bear more?" Yea, more." And I gather up all the sins of a hundred people in this house, and I put them on the shoulders of Christ, and 1 say, "Canst thou bear more?" Yea, more." And I gather up all the sins of this assembly, and I put them on the shoulders of this Son of God and I say "Canst thou bear them?" Yea," he says, "more."

HE HATH BORNE OUR TRANGGRESSIONS, "Crushed and Mangled. A bad door was detected from Schineman's olice house on the corner. The searchers ripped up a part of the floor, and were horrified to find rows of skeletons, to some of which shreds of flesh still clung.

Who placed them there is not known, and the authorities will make every efforte the floor, and were horrified to find rows of skeletons, to some of which shreds of flesh still clung.

Who placed them there is not known, and the authorities will make every efforte the floor, and were horrified to find rows of skeletons, to some of which shreds of flesh still clung.

Who placed them there is not known, and the authorities will make every efforte the floor, and were horrified to find rows of skeletons, to some of which shreds of flesh still clung.

The theory advanced by the health officers is that some attache of a medical college brought the subjects there to bleach. The bones were allowed to remain and the authorities will make every efforte the floor, and were horrified to find rows of skeletons, to some of which shreds of fles my shoulders all the sorrows and all the

says, "more." HE HATH BORNEOUL TRANSGRESSIONS CHARLESTON, S. C., June 26.—A hor-Carolina Railway depot here this morning, John Biack, a respectable old street car conductor, went to the depot to see his daughter off for Walhalla. In trylepot, some 500 feet, was hurled under he cars and horribly mangled. All this occurred in the presence of over 100 spectators, including a son of the deceased. They were powerless to help. Black was an old man and was one of the most popular conductors on the city railway. He came here twelve years ago from Walhalla. TACOMA, Wash., June 25 .- It is ru mored the strikers displaced by colored men imported from the South at the Gillman, New Castle and Franklin mines are drilling in the woods daily. They are said to be armed with rifles, and a combination has been effected, so the building. Among the callers was a reporter for The News and Courier, who asked him some questions on cur-rent topics, which he answered readily only?"

A TALK WITH TILLMAN.

"All I can say about that is that when I accepted Col. Terrell's chal-lenge to meet him at Spartanburg I expected the discussion to be in public and for the benefit and enlightenment cept the Grange encampment building.

As I understand it this is a friendly dison between the distinguished lecof the National Alliance and mypon a question affecting the inof all classes, Alliancemen, farmho do not belong to the Alliance itizens who cannot join that or sitizens who cannot join that or zation. I cannot see any reason, efore, why the debate should not be

When will the discussion take place?" "I don't know, but, I presume on the second day of the session of the State Alliance, which will be about the 22d of July,"

"Have you heard from Col. Terrell

"Only through the newspapers, but when I was at Cedar Springs last week I mentioned the matter to some of the leading Alliancemen in Spartanburg, and they said there would be a large crowd present and they wanted the discussion to be in public."

"What arrangements have been made for the meeting?"

"None that I know of, but I presume that President Stokes and the Spartan search than had before been made. A bad odor was detected from Schine

Drilling for War

that any attempt to resume work at any ng of the entire force of armed miners of the mines will result in the gather-to resist the attempt.

dent of Education Mayfied, has asked for the publication of the following:

Tue Governor and the Sub-Treasury De CHARLESTON, S C., June 30. -Governor Tillman spent the greater part of the morning yesterday in his room at It had been until then my honest imthe Charleston Hotel, where he received quite a number of callers. His time until 4 o'clock was pretty well occupied in this way and in the incidental effort of keeping cool on the shady side of pression that the action of the board had been what was stated by me in an editorial in reference thereto, which appeared in the April number of the Jour-nal, page 263. In that editorial, which was widely circulated, but which the board of examiners evidently did not read, if they saw a copy of the Journal, As the next "case" in which Governor Tillman will be one of the parties is my presence.

"The State board of examiners adopt ed a resolution urging the trustees throughout the State to become subscribers, and allowing them to pay for their subscriptions out of the contingent fund of their district."

When I returned the board had passe to other subjects and I was informed that the board had endorsed the l'almetto School Journal. Nothing else was said to me in reference to the matter at one to the other .- The State. that time or subsequently by any member of the board, and knowing of no other proposition, I natually supposed that what was said referred to the proposition I submitted. Under this impression I wrote the editorial in the Journal mentioned, the circular letter to the trustees and the statement recently prepared by me for publication. I had no idea I was mistaken until I saw the statements in Monday's Record. It is inconceivable that I should have attempted to prevent a resolution of the board where detection and exposure would be so certain to follow. I committed the er or of not verifying my impression simply because I did not suspect the possibility of mistake. Had I entertained any doubt I could easily have done so, as I am clerk of the board and keeper of its record. The proposi-tion was made openly, in perfect good faith and with a sincere desire to advance dent and to lie within the legitimate powers of the board. In this State the State board of examiners on the 17th of April, 1889, passed

"Resolved further. That the chair man be resquested to subscribe for five scribe for five copies of the Carolina School Journal, one for each member o the board, and pay for them out of the public funds, they certainly have the right to authorize the trustees to sub-scribe for a School Journal for their use, and pay for it out of the public funds. If a School Journal paid for by the State ca, made an attempt this afternoon on er than by the sweat of his brow." If is a good thing for the members of the the life of Sheriff Smith. Since his at-

The twenty-first annual report of the cell the prisoner asked for a match, and State Superintendent of Education for as the sheriff handed it to him Brabham 1889 (page 20) shows this entry: "Sub-struck him a fearful blow with the chain scription to Charleston World-$7." If with which he was fastened. The sherin the past it was thought expedient to pay for a daily newspaper for the head of the educational department of the Brabham, however, got him down and State out of whole first the court of whole fi State out of public funds, what impropriety could there be in paying for an educational journal for subordinate school the corridor and pulled Brabham off. When the sheriff regained his feet he funds, which journal contains official injumped on Brabham and beat him se-other States, including Pennsylvania and Virginia, educational journals are paid for directly out of the State funds. The acceptance of my proposition was a ques-tion for the board. I felt sure they would adopt no plan which was not advisable and right, and supposing they had adoptinvestigated, ed my propositions as submitted, I for at liberty to proceed on their authority. verifying their action, but I positively disclaim all intention of misrepresent in entire good faith and without inten

It is due to Superintendent Mayfield that I should say that the editorial in the Palmetto Journal, the circular letter to the trustees and my former statement to the press were written and published without his knowledge and during his as its editor. It is also due to the members of the board of examiners to acquit

W. J. THACKSTON.

Robbed and Left to Starve. unable to tell how he came to be tied and now lies in a precarious condition. A GANG OF YOUNG THUGS.

FROM MR. THACKSTON IN REFERENCE TO HIS SCHOOL JOURNAL.

He Explains How He Came to be Mistak en About the Resolution of the State COLUMBIA, S. C., July 2,-Mr. W. J. Thackston, clerk to State Superinten-

To the Public: I feel that it is due to myself and to the public that I should say that not until I read the statements of Superintendent Mayfield on his return to the city and of Prot Johnson, pubto the city and of Prot Johnson, published in the Record of Monday, the 29th sleeping and of robbing him of his pockult, did I know I had misconceived the

ANOTHER CARD

I wrote as follows: the sub-treasury debate at Spartanburg he was asked a few questions about that interesting prospective event.

"What about the Spartanburg meeting at which you are to meet Col. Terrell in debate? Will the speeches be heard by members of the Alliance only?"

During the meeting of the board of ex-miners on the 4th of April, of which board I am by law clerk. I made orally the proposition in question, namely, that the board should officially endorse the Palmetto School Journal as its organ, and should urge the school trustees to become subscribers, paying for their subscription out of the funds for their districts. That proposition included the offer of all space free of charge necessary for the publication of the official matter of the board and of the department of education. I then asked to be excused from the meeting that the board might consider the proposition without the following resolution in refernce to the Carolina School Journal:

copies of the Journal for the use of the If the board of examiners could sub-

State board of examiners, why is it not tempt recently to kill a fellow-prisoner supposed to need the information it conformation from the State board and the vereiy. The prisoner begged to be killdepartment of education? If my information is correct, in several at liberty to proceed on their authority.

I now see I committed an error in not turned justed out. Baker was a coning the facts. I have acted throughout ional concealment.

his daughter on for wallands after it absence. He was not consulted by me day, in which one man lost in the platic started his foot was caught in the platic because he had no interest in the Journal four others received serious injuries. The men were propping up the roof, when a rock, weighing a ton and a half, them of all responsibility for my mistake.

as possible after I had discovered that I had been all along mistaken as to the action of the board of examiners with reference to the Palmetto Journal.

Robbed and Left to Starve.

ROANOKE, Va., July 1.—Barney Smith, a mechanic employed for some time at the Roanoke Machine Works, disappeared last pay day, June 19. He was found to-day, with his hands bound and tied to a tree, in a lonely spot in the Blue Ridge mountains, ten miles from here. He was frantic and half starved. He had gnawed the bark from the tree to which he was tied. He was unable to tell how he came to be tied.

The Recent Assaults and Robberles in SUMTER, S. C., June 27 .- The charges and the evidence against Nelson, the young negro footpad, are accumulating rapidly and it begins to appear that he was not the only one connected with the various assaults and robberles perpetrated upon our citizens during the past two weeks, but was probably the ringleader of a gang of four or five young despera-Nelsov was taken out of jail yesterday swer to the charge of having entered, on Tuesday morning, between 3 and 4 o'clock, the apartment in which Mr. A. F. Byrd, an employee at the mill of Mr. ult, did I know I had misconceived the action of the State board of examiners with regard to the Palmetto School Jour-that as the night was warm, he had opened all the windows and the door, and had laid down on the bed, intending, as soon as he had cooled off, to get up and shut the door; that he had gone to sleep, however, and between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning was aroused by hearing some one moving around in his room, and upon awaking fully he found it was a young negro man, of whom he gave a description which exactly fitted Nelson. He said the negro placed his hand upon his hip pocket, as though in the act of drawing a pistol, and told him not to move, or he would blow out his brains; and that being totally unarmed, he had remained quiet: that the negro deliberately went through everything, took the articles above mentioned and then left.

Saturday morning the pocketbook and papers were found among Nelson's things, and he confessed the whole affair. and stated that he had been accompanied by a young negro of the town, named Jim Stuttle. Stuttle was accordingly arrested and both were sent to jail to await trial at the October term of the court. Nelson also made confessions to the police implicating several other negroes, but they have not yet been ar rested, and the police will not make known their names.

Nelson acknowledged being the one who came after the policeman earlier on Monday night, just before young Foxworth was struck. From the time at which Foxworth was struck and that at which Mr. Byrd was robbed, Nelson must have gone immediately from the tin of the South Carolina weather ser vide, in co-operation with the United States Signal Service for the week ending Saturday, is as follows, and is very encouraging to farmers. The rainfall for the past week has been below the normal and badly dis-tributed. The temperature has been above the average with very much of sunshine, all of which has been very beneficial to all crops. The cotton has improved very much

Cotton Three Weeks Late. The weekly weather and crop bulle

The cotton has improved very much where it has been properly cultivated, but there are many gaps or missing places which give it a ragged appearance, and that portion of the crop is growing very rapidly and is now covered with blooms. A considerable portion of the crop has been and still is faith and with a sincere desire to advance the interest of public education. It weather, tutlabor is very scarce. The yield of an ordinary crop will, to a great distribution of wealth, he said that it extent, depend upon the success in ing rid of the grass in the next few

The corn crop is now a fair average, but if a drought should now set in, which present appearances indicate, it will be seriously injured. There can be no doubt but that the

it was planted early, all of it is now growing finely, and good stands have been obtained.

A Desperate Prisoner

WASHINGTON, June 29 .- A special to the Post from Charlotte, N. C., says that Brabham, the negro who is to be hanged for murdering the Italian, Mocchained to the door of his cell. This afternoon when the sheriff went into the would have killed him but for the negro prisoner. Caldwell, who rushed in from Decoyed to the River. VINCENNES, Ind., July 1 .- The dead body of James Baker, Sr., a well-to-do farmer who lived three miles south of the city, was found floating in the Wa-bash river near the foot of Prairie street. His upper lip was lacerated, as if from a blow, and his right arm was bruised and bore marks of fingers, and vivial man of 60, and had been drink ing heavily all day. It was currently reported that he had sold a team of horses and the supposition is that he was decoyed to the river, murdered, robbed and thrown into the water.

Death in a Coal Mine.

ST. Louis, June 25 .- A dispatch from Hamilton, Mo, says: An accident oc-curred at the shaft of the Caldwell Coal Company's mine, near this city, yester-day, in which one man lost his life, and when a rock, weighing a ton and a half fell, killing Paul Bloise instantly, crushing Robert Stewart's back, breast and hem of all responsibility for my mistake.

This statement is made public as soon ley and crushing John Lewis and William Hall more or less seriously. Killed by a Cloudburst.

> KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 25 .- A report comes from Cherokee County, North Carolina, of a terrible cloudburst there late yesterday afternoon. Two illicit distillers, named Harvey Agnew ley investigating committee resumed its sittings this afternoon and examined a large number of witnesses. A communication was received from

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.

Receipts and Expenditures for the Pas

WASHINGTON, July 1 .- The monthly public debt statement was issued today in an entirely new form. It combines both the Secretary's statement of the public debt and the United States Treas-liabilities, heretotore issued separately. Comparison with the last monthly tatement and the statement issued July 1, 1890, shows an increase in the puband brought before Justice Wells to anlic debt during the past month of about and the scene at his death bed was terrifive millions, and a net reduction during ble. the past fiscal year of twenty million dellars.

urer's monthly statement of assets and

The surplus in the treasury today, in the new form of statement put out today, is placed at $53,893,808, or about five millions less than a month ago, with no chauge in the interest-bearing debt of the government during the past month. The bonded debt today is $610,529,120, made up in round numbers of $560,000, 000 fours and $50,500,000 four and a hal per cent bonds.

Government receipts from all source during the past fiscal year aggregated a half less than during the preceding year. Customs receipts were $219,900,658, or about ten millions less than during the preceding year; internal revenue re-ceipts were $145,943,281, an increase over the preceding year of three millions and a quarter, and receipts from miscellaneous courses."

Tuesday be stone would atways say: "I don't believe I will have hydrophobia."

Tuesday be stone below: miscellaneous sources were nearly thirtysix millions, about five millions greater water. As soon as the dipper reached than in the preceding year.
On the other hand, expenditures during the fiscal year just closed were $388,-696,924, against $318,040,710 during the preceding year. Seventeen millions and half of this increase is pension charge of $124,145,110 for the past year. Civil and miscellaneous ex-will. penditures during the year amounted to $110,139,339, an increase over the preceding year of nearly thirty millions. Indian expenses were $8,526,198, or nearly two millions more than during nearer together until Wednesday eventhe preceding year. Navy expenditures were $26,115,098, or four millions more than during the preceding year, and war department expenditures were $48,723,-116, or four and a quarter millions lieve him. They gave him morphine, greater than in the preced by year, $37,127,201 were paid out during the year for interest on the public debt and $10,401,220 in premiums on $114,000,000 bonds purchased and redeemed during the never drank a drop of water from ing the year.

SENATOR INGALLS AS A LECTURER.

He Discusses Current Problems in H Characteristic Way. WASHINGTON, June 30 .- Ex-Senator

Ingalls made his debut as a lecturer at the National Chautauqua at Glen Echo, near this city. His subject was problems of our second century." and his effort was listened to by a large audience. The first problem which he discussed was the danger of paternalism in government, and he paid his respects in his unique way to that class of people who want their debts paid by Act of Con-gress and who would have money as plentiful as autumn leaves in the forest. He did not believe, he said, in having very grassy, and farmers are making the government doing everything and the people nothing.

> was not right that ten million people timated that Canada was the country walking, and some would be sitting in legally in the United States. forces of demoralization were marshalled for the contest. He had no doubt of be in the future broader liberty, larger opportunities for happiness and greater prophesics for development of the nation tor at San Francisco for deportation to than the mind of man can now conceive. China. The department sees no occasion White Cap Whipping in Indiana.

CHICAGO, ILL, June 30.—A dispatch from New Albany, Ind., says there was another brutal whipping by white caps in crawford county Sunday morning in which a young woman of eighteen years was one of the victims. William McGuire and his eighteen year old step daughter live near Leavenworth, the county seat of Crawford county. were reported to be living in adultery but there was no proof of this charge. About 1 o'clock Sunday morning twenty masked white caps, all armed with revolvers went to McGuire's residence, broke down the door and seizing Mc-Guire, who is about fifty years old, and his step-daughter dragged them to the woods and tied them face foremost to trees. Then the clothing of both victims was lowered to the hips and the white caps commenced the cruel work of whipping them on their bare backs. flaying them from the shoulders to the hips. The young woman shricked for mercy at every blow, but her appeals were in vain until she sunk fainting from pain. She received over fitty lashes. Her shoulders, tac and hips are frightfully larcerated. Old man savage punishmert. After the whipdays later they would be hung up by their necks and left for the buzzards to pick. This infamous whipping of helpless girl has created the most intense excitement in Leavenworth and the neighborhood of that town and i denounced with great bitterness. A Sad Accident.

BLACKVILLE, S. C., July 2-Mr. James McDonald, a highly respected and well-to-do citizen living about a half mile from Elko, went this morning with a party to Capt. W. W. Willis's mill on a fishing expedition. About 10 o'clock he and his two grown daughters went out into the pond in a boat, and while paddling up the pond the boat struck a tree, throwing out the younger daughter. He immediately jumped overboard to save her when they both went to the bottom and did not rise Boston, June 29.—James Corcoran died in the hospital here last night, from the effects of having swallowed his false teeth.

Boston, June 29.—James Corcoran died in the hospital here last night, from the effects of having swallowed his false teeth.

Index a large number of witnesses. A communication was received from Postmaster General Wannamaker, in which he offered to appear before the committee at any time upon twenty-four hours notice.

Index a large number of witnesses. A communication was received from Postmaster General Wannamaker, in which he offered to appear before the committee at any time upon twenty-four hours notice.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

GEORGE W. MALCOM BITTEN BY A MAD DOG.

He Showed No Sigus of Hydrophobia Un til He Saw Water-He Begged and Pra

ed to Die Before the Spasms Came MONROE, Ga., June 26 .- Mr. George W. Malcom, Sr., one of the most prominent men and one of the best citizens of Walton county, meta horrible death at his home nine miles from here vesterday morning. He died from hydrophobia

On the morning of the 3d of June, about daybreak, he started out to his lot to feed his horse. In the public road near the lot he met a dog coming down the road in a run. Without the least provocation the dog sprang at Mr. Malcom, catching him through the nose and face. He held on like grim death, and only turned loose his hold after Mr. Malcom had chocked him nearly to death.

Notwithstanding his mouth and nose were badly torn by the bite of the dog, and the blood was rapidly flowing from $401,530,716, or about one million and a halfless than during the preceding year. which he beat the dog to death. He was a brave, gritty man, and seemed to have less fear of hydrophobia than any of his friends. He would always say: "I don't

Tuesday he ate a hearty dinner and his lips he jumped high off the floor and screamed at the top of his voice. As soon as this, the first convulsion wore off, he announced to his family that he was a dead man-that he had hyfound in the drophobia. He sent at once for all his This being finished, he began having convulsions, which were light at first and at intervals of about one hour. They grew harder and harder and nearer and mg, when he became exhausted and irrational, and remained in this condition until Thursday morning, when he died. The physicians could do nothing to re-

He never drank a drop of water from the time he was taken until he died. He wanted it and talked about it, and even begged for it, but when it was brought into his sight he would shudder and order it carried away as quickly as possible. He frothed at the mouth, and his screams were hear rending. He would fore another spasm came. He seemed to have superhuman strength. Six men around his bedside could not hold him down. Finally, in a convulsion more terrible than any that had preceded it, death came to his relief. Mr. Malcom was sixty years old, and a deacon in his church. He leayes a beg to die, and often prayed to die be-wife and ten children, most of whom are grown and married. "The Chinese Must Go."

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Acting ceretary Spaulding rendered a decision today in regard to China that will be widespread in its application. Three Chinamen yesterday came to Detroit should never have enough to eat in this country from one year's end to another, they should be returned. Acting Secrenor should it ever happen that a man tary Spaulding directed that they be rewent hungry when he was willing and able to work. It was quite evident from points raised by the United States Comhis talk, however, that he did not excotton crop is three weeks late, and it will require good seasons from now on to produce an average crop.

The rice crop, whilst but one half of the wealth in the United States were to be equally divided now, in six months there wealth in the United States were to be as the treaty named in Section No. 1 equally divided now, in six months there would be some people riding in palace would be some people riding in palace cars, some in buggles, some would be citied by fence corners watching the procession go less to return them to Canada to come "Above all," he added, "there back tomorrow. The above act was exwould be heard again the voice of the irrepressible reformer earning his livelider it we return unquestioned to China, ood by the perspiration of his jaw rath- as the country whence they came, Chier than by the sweat of his brow." If some men were rich and others were Columbia, as they make the contiguous poor it was the fault of the Creator. He foreign countries the avenue for reachequally as good for the trustees, who are named Caldwell, Brabham has been would not disguise the fact the the present was a momentous crisis in the history of this country, and that all the is directly in the line of carrying out the expulsion act for which the appropriation the outcome of the fight. There would Pacific coast, when the court finds Chinamen illegally in the country, for the

> for different practice at Detroit.' The Knights of Labor.

COLUMBUS, O., June 24.—The General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor is in session here to-day meeting will continue for several days, and will be an important one in many respects. It will be decided whether Mai. McKinley shall be denounced or antagonized because President Harrison had refused to allow the state of the had refused to allow the reinstatement of discharged plate printers at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington. Mr. Devlin said this afternoon that no fault could be found with McKinley personally, as he had expressed sympathy with the men, but if antagonized at all it would be as a leader of the Republican party, whose head, President Harrison, had refused the demand of organized labor.

A Brute in the Mountains

GREENVILLE, S. C., July 2 .- It is re ported from the upper part of this county that on Sunday last "Babe" Durham, a young white man, brutally beat Miss Gosnell on the head and body with the butt of his pistol and kicked McGuire was given about seventy-live lashes. He also fell fainting under the savage punishment. After the whipsavage punishmert. After the whip-ping the white caps notified them if they were found in the county twenty days later they would be hung up by and Courier.

Duel in a Court Room Nashville, Tenn., June 29.—At Buffalo Valley, Putnam County, two witnesses in a murder trial, named Jim Mitchell and Oscar Piunkett, became involved in a involved in a quarrel in the court room Saturday. They drew revolvers and began firing at each other and kept it up until both had been mortally won ided. The shooting caused great Excursion Train Wrecked. VAN BUREN, Ark June special excursion train o Fort Smith was wre rail three miles car night, killing a lit